

Stoughton No Place For Hate celebrates Martin Luther King Jr.

With Pot Luck Dinner, Stories and Music

Saturday, January 13, 2007
Stoughton High School

5:15 PM - 6:30 PM ~ SHS Cafeteria
Bring Your Favorite Potluck Dish To Create A
Multi-Cultural Celebration With Foods
From Around The World

- 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM ~ SHS Auditorium
- ☞ "I Have a Dream" speech performed by SHS students
 - ☞ "Great Ain't Easy" written by Acting Police Chief Chris Ciampa and performed by Ayaisha Azizi & Cynthia Desir
 - ☞ Harvest Church Gospel Singers and Liturgical Dancers
 - ☞ "MLK: Amazing Grace" Theatrical Performance by Rochel Garner Coleman
 - ☞ Stoughton Senior Serenaders led by Helyn Hall

All are Invited to this Wonderful Evening of Diversity

Sponsored by Stoughton No Place for Hate and the Stoughton Clergy Association

Funds and donations from Massasoit Community College, Stoughton Chamber of Commerce, Stoughton Adult Basic Education Program, Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts at the Stoughton Library and Stop & Shop Market

Free
Admission

For more information please contact
LVM-Stoughton ~ 781-344-2603

Free
Admission